We wish to say together – THANK YOU to you for your passion and dedication. It is important to have a caring politician like you in representing the community and in advocacy of a globally concerned matter- Human Rights Issue and your passion in support of Human Rights of Uyghurs of East Turkistan is invaluable for our community in Australia.

The Uyghur Human Rights issue has become a global concern and it is related to our national interest as a country founded on the values of democracy, freedom and liberty. Our calls and ultimate freedom of Uyghur people can be achieved with the support of international communities, countries and government people such as you.
