

What is Uyghur?

WE ARE UYGHUR (TURKIC PEOPLE)
AND NATIVES OF EAST TURKISTAN.

Our Country

LOCATED IN THE HEART OF ASIA, EAST TURKISTAN IS A VAST TERRITORY THAT NEIGHBOURS MONGOLIA, RUSSIA, KAZAKHSTAN, KYRGYZSTAN, AFGHANISTAN, INDIA AND TIBET.

SINCE 1949, EAST TURKISTAN WAS OCCUPIED BY CHINA AND RENAMED AS 'XINJIANG' ('NEW FRONTIER' IN CHINESE).

East Turkistan

182 CAMPS HAVE BEEN IDENTIFIED THROUGH SATELLITE IMAGERY WHICH SEEM TO RESEMBLE CONCENTRATION CAMPS, WITH FORCED POLITICAL INDOCTRINATION.

What is happening?

“One of the world’s worst human rights crises is happening...”

- Matt Schiavenza at Asia Society

Uyghur parents are being removed forcibly from their children.

“Reports of children being placed in orphanages against their families’ wishes.”

- Human Rights Watch

In the camps, Uyghurs are forced to denounce their beliefs, identity, culture. Whilst pressured to praise the Communist Party of China.

Most of the men and women are sent to separate camps. There are also reports of physical torture.

Over a MILLION Han Communist Party members have been made to live in Uyghur homes.

“ ... new details show that these centers have a lot more in common with concentration camps. ”

- Alexia Fernández Campbell, Politics & Policy Reporter at Vox

RE EDUCATION CAMPS